8. Motion - Naming a Road in Honour of the Late Mr. Hasmukh Patel Kanji – Hon. Samir Baloo (MCA, Tudor Ward)

Mr. Speaker Sir, I beg to move the following Motion:

THAT AWARE that the Fourth Schedule, Part 2, Section 5(a) of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 assigns County Governments the role of managing County transport, including County roads;

NOTING THAT Mr. Hasmukh Patel Kanji was a prominent philanthropist in Mombasa who contributed immensely to the welfare of the community through numerous charitable initiatives, including feeding programs, educational scholarships, support for persons with disabilities, and the transformation of the Kibarani dumpsite into a recreational park;

ACKNOWLEDGING the indelible impact of Mr. Patel's charitable actions, which continue to uplift the residents of Mombasa, thus embodying an inspiring model of selfless service and dedication to communal welfare;

RECOGNIZING the need to honor such an exemplary individual whose contributions resonate deeply within the community, thereby setting a benchmark for social responsibility and public service;

CONCERNED that the failure to acknowledge such a significant contributor to the community would overlook an important figure in Mombasa's recent history;

I therefore urge this Assembly to RESOLVE:

THAT the County Government of Mombasa, through the Department of Transport and Infrastructure, formally designate and name a road as "Hasmukh Patel Kanji Road" in perpetual honour of the late Mr. Hasmukh Patel Kanji's invaluable contributions to the County and his enduring legacy of community service.

9. Bills;

Adjournment.
